HOLIDAY SPIRIT PEVADES FIELD OF FINANCE HERE Day Spent Mostly in Exchanging Gifts and Felicitations.

SOME EXCEPTIONS Georgetown's Banks Come Back at Night to Insure Business Men's Interests.

The holiday spirit was the prevailing feature among the local financial men yesterday. Practically all the institutions paid their employees in full and in many cases liberal bonuses were added.

Exchange of gifts between employer and employee alike was the general thing. The young ladies affiliated with the American Security & Trust Company erected a Christmas tree in the new savings section.

While the Christmas spirit was prevalent in all parts of Washington last night, employees of the Potomac Savings Bank and Farmers & Mechanics National Bank, both of Georgetown, were working before taking care of the large sums of money which were deposited.

Charles D. Boyer, president of the local chapter, American Institute of Banking, yesterday announced that the meetings scheduled to take place next week have been dispensed with in order to allow the students to properly celebrate the Yuletide season.

At a meeting of the directors of the American Exchange Bank held recently the regular quarterly dividend of $2.00 per share was declared, payable January 2.
